Golden Gate

The very best that money can buy. This is the pet of the whole line, the one that the Golden Gate people think so much of. You can pay more, but you can't get more quality. This comes in one, two and three-pound cans, either whole roast or steel cut.

All of these goods we get fresh every week, and we know that they come to us fresh roasted. The blend is always the same and once you like one of them you will never have the trouble of having to use another kind, for they are always absolutely the same. We believe in them so strongly that if you will order a package and, after using half of it, you find that it does not suit your individual taste, we will send and get it without you having to pay a cent for it.

COLQUITT RETURNS FROM CUBAN VISIT

Governor and Family Land at New Orleans—Hastens to Texas.

New Orleans, Oct. 21.—Governor O. B. Colquitt, with his wife and daughter, Miss Mary Colquitt, reached here last night on the steamer Excelsior from Havana and departed on the 11:45 o'clock Southern Pacific train for Texas. They are hastening to Austin. The party went to the Grunewald hotel, but did not take apartments.

Governor Colquitt was greatly impressed with Cuba. He met the president and was officially received by members of the cabinet. One of the most noticeable developments in Cuba is the land boom, he said. Many Southern sugar planters whose industry will be destroyed by free sugar are in Cuba securing plantations and preparing to operate there.
